

IVolunteer International Allyship Statement

Board Approved on August 22, 2022

IVolunteer International is an equal opportunity employer and an ally.

What does an "Ally" mean?

An ally is someone who listens to, believes, and amplifies voices of diversity. Everyone can be an ally. Allyship means doing the work, showing up, speaking up, and offering support for others. This requires listening and learning to gain an understanding of what's needed of you. Everyone is on a journey of understanding.

IVolunteer International Allyship Statement

IVolunteer International's vision is to create 7 billion volunteers. With this vision in mind, IVolunteer International actively engages in activities and advocates for policy and societal evolutions that support, accept, and celebrate all forms of global diversity. IVolunteer International is committed to engaging our stakeholders in conversations, actions, and training that expands our understanding of global diversity. We are not just a "non-discriminatory" organization, instead we are an actively-inclusionary organization.
